

This law in NJ is one of the best things that has happened to give people serenity in the privacy of their own homes. It is especially important to the elderly who often cannot decipher what is being asked of them and agree to purchase what is offered without really knowing what they are agreeing to. Please DO NOT this act.